March 10, 2017

Vol. 36, No. 33

Editor: Bill Meehan

March is the month of all seasons. Thursday's spring-like weather flipped to Friday's snow storm. As school cancelled, so did the speaker. Still, seven snow covered, intrepid Rotarians gathered to enjoy Marly's giant shrimp and crab cake salad followed by a chocolate mousse treat.

Announcements:

- March 13 at 6:00 p.m. - Police Award ceremony at Trackside. Please show support for Wilton's Finest. Attend the 2017 Police Award ceremony.
- March 20 – Bogey's Grille & Tap Room, 1 Wilton Ave., Norwalk, Bud will buy the $10 steak dinner for all club members in attendance. READER ALERT – NOT AN "ALTERNATIVE FACT." Fifty percent of the dinner price goes to a worthy charity.
- Pat is continuing his dogged quest to install a smoke detector in every structure in Wilton. Thirty seniors signed up for this year's project. Pat promises to install each and to do it with one hand tied behind his back. (Maybe an Alternative Fact)

Upcoming Events:

4/1 — District 7980 Training Assembly
5/02 — Annual Town Meeting
5/27 — Arts and Crafts Show
6/22 — 2017 Wilton Rotary Installation Dinner

4/28-30 Rotary District Conference
5/11 — New Canaan Rotary golf outing
6/10-14 — RI Convention, Atlanta GA
9/15-17 — Carnival

WE HAVE A WINNER!

Such a simple game. Just pick the darn joker. Week and week Judy patiently watched one over confident Rotarian after another fumble away the game. Meanwhile, the pot grew. Judy bided her time. That is, until today. Judging the pot was finally worthy, Judy swooped in like a sharp-eyed bird of prey. Bud did his best to hide the joker, shuffling the deck and trying corny jokes to break Judy's concentration. All for naught. "You want me to pick this joker?" Judy asked as the crowd groaned, realizing the pot was gone and would take months to rebuild.

NEXT MEETING – Friday, March 17, 2017 – 12:15 at Marly's
